

Biography

Paul Harris is a Policy Officer in the unit 'Training and mobility of researchers; Marie Curie' of the European Commission, within the Directorate-General for Education and Culture. This unit is responsible for the policy strategy of the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) in the EU research and innovation programme Horizon 2020, as well as the supervision of the implementation of the MSCA by the Research Executive Agency (REA).

Paul Harris is the policy lead on the Individual Fellowships of the MSCA, which enable experienced researchers to move to, from, and within Europe. He is also the contact point on MSCA for Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States.

Previously he worked for the European Research Council Executive Agency, after being the Brussels representative of first Scottish and then Welsh Universities. His degree in European Studies & French included a placement with a Member of the European Parliament.
