Initial Considerations

How does a usual project look like?

- EU added value.
- Usually, it will require a consortium involving, at least, 3 legal entities in 3 different Member States or Associated Countries.
- Aligned with the specific R&D lines included in the calls and relevant work programmes (topics).
- Comply with ethical principles, and with national/EU legislation.

Initial Considerations

Am I ready for participation?

- Does the participation opportunity fits my strategy?
- Collaboration with international partners:
  - Do I like it?
  - Do I have them? Can I find them?
- Calls have particular characteristics:
  - Extremely competitive - ready to be disappointed?
  - Is the usual time to grant ok for me?
- Do I have the right team to write the application?

Key Milestones

- Definition of a clear/concise project idea
- Search for potential funding opportunities
- Validation of the project idea: Go/No Go decision
- Proposal preparation
  - Consortium building
  - Application writing
- Support available: your EU office, NCP network, EU funded initiatives, etc.

Benefits from participation

- Cooperation with key stakeholders/researchers on a given area
- Training for own staff
- Access to new technologies
- Access to new markets
- International reputation
- Funding for R&D activities
